...:GOD is The Process...:

GOD IS... the Process...
there is serenity in the silence.

When you look back on any difficult time in your life,
you will recognize the beginning and the end...
but the middle, the part that you had to endure...
is the process we are taken thru in life.

The process is where we discover God's love ...
It is thru the perseverance in the waiting that He can be heard.

In us is the initial vision...
the inspiration of something...
the big picture & the end result...
it is within the process...
the waiting...
where you will find the gift...
the Blessing...

See it, Envision it, Understand it, Appreciate it and allow the energy to grow and flow on its own and the beauty will manifest.
